Reading changes everything

Teach a child to read and keep that child reading and we will change everything.

And I mean everything.

Jeanette Winterson

Research shows that children who learn to read quickly go on to succeed in school and in life.

Teaching letter formation

Handwriting phrases for helping your child to form letters

This works best if your child practises for a short time every day.

1. Show the picture side and air-write as you say the phrase.
2. Ask your child to practise in the air with you.
3. Using a sharp pencil and sat at a table, encourage your child to have a go.
4. Praise your child for their efforts.

Reception - Saint Bernadette

Reception really enjoyed using a range of different skills in their additional PE lesson on the MUGA this week. They practised controlling their bodies as they moved around the space in a number of different ways and in different directions. They worked together so beautifully offering each other useful feedback and advice on how to improve their technique and accuracy. They developed their throwing skills and practised keeping score – well done Reception!
