

Religious Education Curriculum Map

Key Stage 1

I can understand that God shows Himself through the word, and especially through Jesus, who helps us know and love God.

I can discern how God wants me to live by listening to stories about Jesus, noticing how people like Mary and Paul followed God, and understanding the importance of forgiveness.

I can respond to God's love by being kind, praying, listening to Bible stories, and celebrating with my school and parish family, trying to love others like Jesus.

EYFS

I can understand that God made us all special with different gifts to share. We learn to celebrate each other and use our talents to help others. Jesus teaches us to love and respect everyone.

I can discern right from wrong by learning how Jesus wants us to behave. I try to make kind choices and care for people and the world around me. My actions can help bring peace and joy.

I can respond to God's love by being kind, helpful, and saying sorry when needed. I try to follow Jesus' example every day. At school, I join in with prayer and reflection.
