Dear Parents,

I am proud to be the Headteacher of our school.

I am proud of the children in our school, the staff in our school, the parent community, and the wider Xavier Catholic Education Trust family.

When life's path becomes bumpy, we rely on our faith and our strength of community to see us through. Our School Values are tested. This week we have relied on our faith and our strength of community. We have truly lived our Values. We will continue to rely on faith, community and Values in the days and weeks ahead.

Please continue to pray for Daniel and for his family. I know that we all will.

God bless,

Mr George
